

The Farmington Community Library is pleased to offer this collection of electronic books. Some can be downloaded to your home computer or transferred to a portable device; others are simply read online.

eBook Features	Metro Net Online Lending Library	NetLibrary
Availability	Must be downloaded to a home computer. (Cannot be downloaded on a Library computer. May not be downloaded to a Mac.)	Viewed from the NetLibrary Web site using Internet Explorer or another browser.
Special account needed	No, simply use your library card	Yes: you must first create an account at NetLibrary using one of the Library's computers
Burn to CD	No	No
Transfer to another device	Titles can be transferred to most digital portable devices, pocket PCs or smart phones	No, you must be connected to the Internet & logged in with your NetLibrary account
Software required	Free download of Adobe Reader™ or MobiPocket Reader™	None; titles are viewed within the browser
Available to check-out	Yes	No
Circulation period	3 weeks	As long as there is activity (scrolling, moving from page to page)
Check-out limit	10 titles	Titles can only be viewed one at a time
Internet connection	Cable or DSL	Any Internet connection
Place holds	Yes	No
Automatic check-in	Yes, although you will need to delete the title from your computer or device	Inactivity for 15 minutes makes title available to another user

Renewable	No, you would need to check it out again	No, you may view the title again as soon as it's available
Fiction	Yes	No
Non-fiction	Yes	Yes
In FCL catalog	Yes	Some but not all titles
Searchable contents	Yes	Yes
Main Library 32737 W. 12 Mile Road Farmington Hills, MI 48334 (248) 553•0300 Fax: (248) 553•3228	Hours Monday–Thursday 9 a.m.– 9 p.m. Friday & Saturday 9 a.m.–6 p.m. Sunday 12 p.m–6 p.m. (NMH 10/29/08)	Farmington Branch 23500 Liberty Street Farmington, MI 48335 (248) 553•0300 ext. 216 Fax: (248) 474•6915